

Figure 1: Computed tomography scan—coronal image showing dysplastic changes in the mastoid process, with increased bone volume and areas of lucency and ground-glass opacity, indicative of fibrous dysplasia.

